

Lady Jess Broom

Sadly I have to report the death of Lady Jess Broom aged 90 years of age.

Lady Broom passed away on the 30th November 2013. Lady Jess took on the role of a Vice President of the Martlesham Heath Aviation Society following the death of her husband Sir Ivor Broom in 2003. Jess Broom (nee Cooper) was a local girl and married Ivor Broom in Ipswich in 1942. They visited our museum in the Control Tower on Martlesham Heath on a visit back to Ipswich.

A celebration of her life will take place at Milton Chapel, The Chilterns Crematorium Amersham on Monday 16th December 2013 at 10:45am.

Details of Lady Broom's death were taken from 'The Times' newspaper dated 6th December 2013.

The Times newspaper have started a 'Guest Book' where notices of condolences can be posted. I have taken the opportunity offered and posted a short note of condolence on behalf of the MHAS.
